In the six hundredth year of the life of Noah, in the day of the "fall" of the ark, God brought upon the earth a wind, and [abated the water]. And were revealed the springs of the abyss and the torrents of the heaven. And [was constrained the rain] from the heaven.

And [gave way the water] going from the earth; and [was lessened the water] after fifty and a hundred days. And [settled the ark] in the seventh month, [the] seventh and twentieth of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. And the water going forth lessened unto the tenth month. In the first of the month, it appeared the heads of the mountains. And it came to pass after forty days, Noah opened the window of the ark which he made. And he sent forth the crow to see if [abated the water]. And going forth it returned not until the drying of the water from the earth. And he sent the dove after it to see if [abated the water] from the earth. And [no finding the dove] rest for her feet, it returned to him into the ark, for water was upon all the face of the earth.

And stretching out the hand, he took her to himself,

And God blessed Noah, and his sons, and said to them, Grow and multiply, and fill the earth, and dominate it! And I will not add yet to curse the earth on account of the works of men, for [clings the thought of pleasant aroma. And [said [the LORD God], [In] considering, I will not add still to strike all [flesh living] as I did. All the days of the earth, spring, day and night, will not be caused to cease.

And Noah built an altar to the LORD. And he took from all the clean, and offered [them] for a whole burnt-offering upon the altar. And [the LORD smelled the scent of pleasant aroma. And said [the LORD God], In considering, I will not add to curse the earth on account of the wicked [things] from his youth. I will not add then still to strike all [flesh living] as I did. Genesis 8:12-17

And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I will establish between me and you, and between every living soul that is with you, the birds that come into the ark, and every living thing that goes out of the ark.

I will remember my covenant between me and you, and between every living soul that is with you, the birds that come into the ark, and every living thing that goes out of the ark, the waters shall no longer become a flood to destroy all flesh. And the memory of God shall be established forever between me and every living soul.

And God remembered Noah and all the living souls that were with him in the ark. And God caused the waters to subside from over all the earth. The springs of the great deep and the floodgates of heaven were closed, and the rain from heaven was withheld for 40 days and 40 nights. AndGod made a wind to pass over the earth and the waters were dried up from over all the earth. The ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.

The ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.

And the waters persisted over the earth a hundred and fifty days.

And Sarai, the wife of Abram, bore not to him. But there was a maid servant of Abram, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. And Sarai spoke to Abram, saying, Behold, I have borne a child to thee; bear her, that she may bear a son to me. And Abram said to Sarai, Behold, I have closed myself up toward the LORD, that he may not give me seed. But there was a maid servant of Sarai, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. And Sarai said to Abram, Behold, I have borne a child to thee; bear her, that she may bear a son to me. And Abram said to Sarai, Behold, thou hast wronged me; I am in thy sight; give me my maid servant. And Sarai said, Behold, here is my maid servant; go in to her. And Abram said to Sarai, Behold, I have disdained to have my maid servant dishonored before thee; go in to her. And Sarai gave her her maid servant, to her, saying, Go in to her. So she went in to Abram to bear a son to him, and bore a son in a year. And Sarai said, I have borne a son to my maidservant; go in to her. And Abram said to Sarai, What is this that thou hast done to me, that thou hast given me the maid servant to be the mother of a son to me? Is anything too difficult for the Lord? At the time when Abram was seventy-five years old, the Lord appeared to Abram and said, I will make you a great nation. And Abram fell upon his face, and said, Wilt thou indeed give me seed out of my body? And he said, Surely Amor is a son to me, and a heir of me. Then Abram fell upon his face again, and said, Behold, a child shall not come of me by the daughter of the house, by the daughter of my house, but a son shall come of the bondwoman. And the word of the Lord came to Abram in a dream, saying, Fear not, Abram, I am thy shield; I will bless thee, and will make thy name great. And I will give thy servant Sarah a son; and she shall call his name Isaac; and I will bless him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly, that he shall be like the stars of heaven, and like the sand which is upon the sea. And he shall be a wanderer, and shall dwindle and be exceedingly plentiful. And Sarah, Abram’s wife, laughed, saying, Shall a child be born to one that is an hundred years old? And the Lord said unto Abram, What is this, that my servant Sarah laughed? Is anything too difficult for the Lord? At the time when Abram was one hundred years old, and Sarah seventy years old, the Lord blessed Abram, and the Lord increased his strength exceedingly. Then the Lord said unto Abram, Go in into the land which I will shew thee. And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and he went into the land of promise. And Abram passed through the land as far as the great river, the Euphrates. Then Abram took Lot, and divided with him, and went each to his own way; for Abram feared for Sodom, fearing lest the wickedness of Sodom might be committed in Abram’s sight. And the men of Sodom and Gomorrah fell upon the Cities of the Plain; and slew the men, and burnt the mansions. And the Lord came down, and looked upon the city and the plain; and beheld, the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace. And the Lord smote the cities, and turned the cities into ashes with a burning wind, and brought them down with the rest of the cities. And Lot went out, and stood before Sodom. And he lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of the Jordan towards the east; and, lo, the whole land was plain, and it was inhabited. And he said, O Lord, is not this my city, Sodom, small to the point of nothing? Yet, lo, I have five hundred safe men. Perhaps the Lord will save all of them, in the name of the living, and in the name of the righteous one. And he said, I will also save them, that the cry of my people may not come before me again.”

And [the LORD], [The] cry of Sodom and Gomorrah has multiplied towards me, and their sins are great, exceedingly. Going down then, I will see if it is according to their cry, the [cry] they exhaust; and if not, that I may know.

And turning back from there, the men came unto Sodom. And Abraham was still standing before [the] LORD.

And Abraham approaching, said, You would not destroy together the just with the impious, and [ will be the just] as the just of Sodom, if there might be fifty just in the city, will you destroy them? And he said, Much less, O Lord, if I may speak still once [more], but if [there] may be found there ten? And he said, No way will I destroy because of the ten. η δε λαβούσα το θέριστρον περιεβάλετο καὶ diηγήσατο ο παίς τω Ισαάκ πάντα τα ρήματα α [ described the servant] to Isaac all the words which he did. And Isaac entered into the house of his mother, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. And he loved her. And Isaac was comforted concerning Sarah his mother.

Isaac did all that his mother Rebekah had said to him, and all that his father Abraham had commanded him.

And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Isaac's brother Rebekah.

25 Isaac took one of his young servants as his messenger, and some of his flocks, and took his father's bread and a skin of old wine and a skin of olive oil and a handful of parched grain, and put them on the donkey and said to his servant, "Go, I pray, to Luz, to Bethel, and serve the Lord at the altar which my father Abraham served at the time when the Lord appeared to him in the vision ofGerar." Isaac also told the young man who was in charge of his flocks, "Tell Rebekah my mother about all these things, and about all that you have heard of me in the ears of my master.

The young servant said, "Surely I will speak to her, but if she does not respond to me, I will know that there is no will for the Lord to go on with this my master's matter. Then I will return with the young man, if I find favor in your eyes, to your master's house; but if she does not respond to me, I will know that there is no will for the Lord to go on with this matter. And I will go about, one way or another, until I find a favorable woman.

And at that time Rebekah took the parched cake and her vessels and said to her servant, "I am going to the spring to get water." So she went down to the spring, and drew water and filled the vessels and gave the young man the water to drink. When she had brought the water, she said to the young man, "I will get water for your camels, so that you may have enough for your camels.

Then she emptied her vessels and said to the servant, "Drink, and I will get water for your camels, so that you may have enough for them." So he drank, and she emptied the vessels into the trough, and she knelt down to the ground to wash her hands and feet.

When she had done all these things, she took the parched cake and the parched grain, and put it all in the young man's hand, and also put in the vessels, and said to the young man, "Have I any more bread, anything to do with the young camels to which I have given water?" So he answered, "Drink, and when I have finished giving the camels water, I will also do whatever you say."

And she gave her milk to the young man, so that he drank, and she gathered the dough together in her hand. Then she took her ring and her bracelets that were on her hands, and said to the servant, "Take these, and give them to the young man; and see, all that is in the hand of your master's servant is yours. Then the servant bowed his head to the earth, and worshiped the Lord.

And the servant had news for his master, saying, "I have seen a woman in the field, which is the daughter of the man of the land." And the servant said to his master, "If the woman will not respond to us, what is the will of the Lord for us?"

And the servant did as his master had instructed him, and took his donkey and returned to his master's city, to Bethel, to the house of his master's father Abraham.

And Rebekah had a beautiful face, and was a daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Isaac's brother Abraham.

When Isaac had become old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called Esau his older son, and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Here I am, my father." Then he said, "Look now, Esau my son is far away, and his wife is a Hittite.

Now therefore, get me some of the game which is in the field, and prepare some good food to eat, so that I may eat, and bless you before the Lord before I die.

And Rebekah said to her son Esau, "Here I am, my son; do you love me or not?" And he answered, "I love you." And she said, "Then eat, my son, so that your voice may sound for me, and I will bless you before the Lord before I die." So Esau went to the field to gather pasture grass, and brought it to his mother. And Rebekah took it and boiled the stew, and she served it before her father.

And he said to her, "Where is the game which you have hunted? Go, prepare for me some venison, that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before I die." And Rebekah said, "Here I am, my son; your father ate of the game which you brought me, and I have blessed him before the Lord. And now, if you will save me a blessing, do me a kindness, and bring me venison and prepare for me some good food, that I may eat, and bless you before the Lord before I die." And Esau went to the field to gather pasture grass, and brought it to his mother. And Rebekah took it and boiled the stew, and served it to her father, and he ate.

And he said to her, "On what did you hunt so successfully?" And she said, "I hunted wild game in the field and gathered it." And he said to her, "I am weary, I have neither strength nor energy." And she said, "My son, eat, so that your voice may sound for me, and I will bless you before the Lord before I die." And he ate with his mother, and he ate with his mother until he had no more strength nor energy to receive food.
Abraham died in old age and was added to his people.

And [entombed] him, Isaac and Ishmael [two sons of his], in the cave double, in the field of Ephron the [son] of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

And it came to pass after the entombing of Abraham and Isaac and Ishmael, the two sons of his, they entombed Abraham and Sarah his wife.

And it came to pass after the dying of Abraham, God blessed Isaac his son.

And Isaac dwelt by the Well of the Vision. And these are the origins of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar bore (the Egyptian maidservant of Sarah) to Abraham.

And these [are] the names of the sons of Ishmael, according to the names of his generations. First-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth, and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma and Dummah, and Massa, and Hadar, and Tema, and Jetur, and Naphish, and Kedemah.

These are the sons of Ishmael, and these [are] the names of them by their tents, and by their generations.

Jacob, saying, We came to your brother Esau. And behold, he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him.

And Jacob feared exceedingly, and he was perplexed. And he divided the people, the one with himself, and the oxen, and the sheep into two camps.

If Esau should come into camp one and should smite it, the one for delivering. The God of my father Abraham, and the God of my father Isaac, O LORD, the one saying to me, Run to the land of your birth! and I will do. It is fit to me for all righteousness, and of all truth, of which you did to your servant; for with this I passed over this Jordan, and now I exist in two camps.

Rescue me from [the] hand of my brother, from [the] hand of Esau! For I fear him, lest coming he should strike me, and [the] mother with children. But you, you said, good to you I will do, and I will establish your seed as the multitude.

And he went to sleep there that night.
In this, he took the gifts of which he brought to Esau his brother; goats -- two hundred; he-goats -- twenty; sheep -- two hundred; rams -- twenty; camels nursing and their offspring -- thirty; oxen -- forty; bulls -- ten; donkeys -- twenty; and foals -- ten. And he gave them by hand to his servants a flock alone. And he said to them, You go forth in front of me, and make a space between this flock and flock. And he gave charge to the first, saying, If should meet you Esau my brother, and he should ask you, saying, Who are you? and where might you go? and who are these going before you? You shall say, Your servant Jacob [gifts has sent] to my master Esau. And behold, he [is] behind us. And he gave charge to the first, and to the second, and to the third, and to all the [ones] going before you speak to Esau when you find him! You shall say, Behold, your servant Jacob comes after us. I will haul you from the ill treatment of the Egyptians into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Gergesites, and Jebusites, into a land flowing milk and honey. And they shall hearken to your voice. And you shall enter, and the council of elders of Israel, to Pharaoh king of Egypt. And you shall say to him, [The] LORD God of the Hebrews calls us. We shall go then on [journey a three days] into the wilderness, that we might sacrifice to the LORD our God. But I know that [will not let you go Pharaoh king.]

Henceforth, when you lift up your eyes toward Egypt, you shall see my wonders, which I will do among them. And after these things I will send you out. And I will give favor to this people before the Egyptians. And whenever you might run from [them], you will not go forth empty. But [will ask a woman] from [neighbor and fellow tent-dweller her] of items of silver, and of gold, and clothes. And you will place [them] upon your sons, and upon your daughters, and you will despoil the Egyptians.

Envelope you or else he said, A rod. And he said to him, Toss it upon the ground! And he tossed it upon the ground, and it became a serpent. And Moses fled from it.

And [the] LORD said to Moses, Stretch out the hand, and take hold of the tail! Stretching out then the hand, he took hold of the tail, and it became a rod in the ground, and it became a serpent. And Moses fled from it.

And [the] LORD said again to him [the] LORD, Insert your hand into your bosom! And he inserted his hand into his bosom. And he brought it from out of his bosom, and was his hand leprous as snow. And [ said again to him [the] LORD]. Insert your hand into your bosom! And he inserted the hand into his bosom. And he brought it out of

And this rod, turning into a serpent, you shall take in your hand in which you will do by it the signs. And Moses, Proceed, be in health! But after [ days those many] [ came to an end the king of Egypt].

And you shall say to Pharaoh, Thus says the LORD: The son of my first-born. If indeed he will not let them go, then will I kill your son, your first-born.

And it came to pass during the journey in the lodging, Zipporah, taking a small [sharp] stone, circumcised the foreskin of her son. of Israel. And he sent out the young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered whole burnt-offerings, and they sacrificed a sacrifice of deliverance to God -- of young calves.

And Moses] half of the blood, poured [it] into a basin; and the [other] half of the blood he poured upon the altar.

And taking the scroll of the covenant, he read into the ears of the people. And they said, All as much as [the] LORD spoke we shall do, and we shall hearken to. [taking the blood, he scattered it upon the people, and said, Behold, the blood of the covenant of which [the] LORD ordained for you concerning all these words. And Moses ascend and Aaron and Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. And they saw the place where [ stood the God of Israel]. And the [things] under his feet [were] as [work a brick] sapphire and as [the] form of firmament of the heaven in the cleanliness. And of the chosen ones of Israel, none dissented -- not one. And they appeared in the place of God, and ate and drank. And [the] LORD said to Moses, Ascend to me unto the mountain, and you be there! And I will give you the writing-tablets.
and the commandments which I wrote to establish law to them. And Moses rising up, and Joshua the [one] standing beside him, they ascended into the mountain of God. And [ to the elders they said], Be still here until we return to you! And behold, Aaron and Hur [are] with you. If anyone should come for a judgment, let them go to them! And Moses ascended into the mountain, and [ covered the cloud] the mountain. And [ came down the glory of God] upon mount Sinai, and [ covered it the cloud] six days. And [the] LORD called Moses on the [ day seventh] from out of [the] midst of the cloud. And the sight of the glory of [the] LORD [was] as fire blazing upon the top of the mountain before the sons of Israel. And Moses entered in the midst of the cloud, and ascended unto the mountain, and was there in the mountain forty days and forty nights.

And [the] LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Speak to the sons of Israel! And take to me first-fruits of all the things which seem [good] in the heart! You shall take the

And it came to pass on the eighth, Moses called Aaron, and his sons, and the council of elders of Israel. And Moses said to Aaron, Take a young calf from the oxen for a sin offering, and a ram for a whole burnt-offering, unblemished; and offer them before the LORD! And to the council of elders of Israel you shall speak, saying, Take a young he-goat from out of the goats, one for a sin offering, and a young calf, and a lamb of a year old for a whole offering, unblemished; and offer them before the LORD; and fine flour being mixed up with olive oil! For today the LORD will appear among you. And they took as the tent of the testimony. And came forward all the congregation, and they stood before the LORD. And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD gave orders, do it! And saying which the LORD gave orders, the glory of the LORD appeared among you. And this will be to you

[ law an eternal] to atone for the sons of Israel from all their sins. Once of the year you shall do as [the] LORD gave orders [to] Moses.

And [the] LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel! And you shall say to them this saying which [the] LORD gives charge, saying,
The man, a man of the sons of Israel, who ever should slay a calf or a sheep or a goat in the camp, and who ever should slay outside the camp, [to the] door of the tent of the testimony should not bring [it]], so as to bring a gift to the LORD before the tent [of the LORD]; blood shall be imputed to that man, [for] blood was poured out. [shall be utterly destroyed] That soul from its people, so that [should bring the sons of Israel] their sacrifices, as many as they should slay in the plains, and shall bring them to the LORD at the door of the tent of the testimony, to the priest. And they shall sacrifice as many as they should slay in the plains, and shall bring them to the LORD at the door of the tent of the testimony. And he shall offer the fat for a scent of pleasant aroma to the LORD. And they shall not sacrifice still their sacrifices to the vain [gods] in which they fornicate after them; [law it will be an eternal]

The man, a man of the sons of Israel, and from the sons of Israel, and from the foreigners among you, who ever should offer a whole burnt-offering or sacrifice, and at the door of the tent of the testimony should not bring [anything] to offer it to the LORD, [ shall be utterly destroyed that man]

And [the] man, a man of the sons of Israel, of the foreigners of the ones lying nearby among you, who ever should eat any blood, that I will set against the soul eating the aima and apolow autiyn ek tou laoũ autiû from his people. And [the] man, a man of the sons of Israel, or of the foreigners of the ones lying nearby among you, who ever should eat any blood, that I will set against the soul eating the aima and apolow autiû

For the life of all flesh [its blood is]. And I gave it to you upon the altar to atone for your souls. For its blood [for [the] soul shall atone]. On account of this I have said to the sons of Israel, for every soul of you shall not eat blood; and the foreigner lying near by to you shall not eat aima and the anerwpoς anerwpoς toon uión Israel. And [the] man, a man of the sons of Israel, or of the foreigners lying near to you, who ever shall hunt a hunt for a wild beast or birds, which is to be eaten, he shall pour out its blood, and cover it in the ground. For the life of all flesh [its blood is], and I said to the sons of Israel, [The] blood of all flesh you shall not eat, for life of all flesh [its blood is].

 RAW TEXT END
And [the] LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Speak to Aaron! And you shall say to him, Whenever you should place the lamps by rank, [ in front of the lamp-stand shall give light the seven lamps]. And he lit up its lamps as [the] LORD gave orders to Moses. And this is the apparatus of the lamp-stand;[ [is] solid gold, its stem], and its lilies [are] solid entirely, according to the form which [the] LORD showed Moses -- thus he made the lamp-stand. And [the] LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Take the Levites from [the] midst of the sons of Israel, and you shall purify them. And thus you shall do to them for their purification, you shall sprinkle about water of purification, and [ shall come a razor] upon [the] whole of their body. And you shall wash their garments, and they shall be clean. And they shall take [ calf one] from the oxen, and of this a sacrifice [offering] of fine flour of all first-born sons of Israel; I have taken them to myself. For every first-born among the sons of Israel, from man unto beast; in which day I struck every first-born in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them to myself.

And I took the Levites instead of every first-born among the sons of Israel.

I gave back the Levites as a gift, recompensing Aaron and his sons from out of the midst of the sons of Israel, to work the works of the sons of Israel in the tent of the testimony, and to atone for the sons of Israel; and [that] shall not be among the sons of Israel.

And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel, gave charge to the Levites to purify themselves before the holy [things], and to wash their garments, and to have made atonement to purify them.

And Moses and Aaron, and the Levites, purified themselves before the LORD; and washed their garments and entered the tent of the testimony. This is the ministration of the Levites in their office.

Amorrites and their land. Commence to inherit his land! And came forth Sihon king of Heshbon to meet us, he and all his people, for war at Jahaz. And [delivered him [the] LORD our God] before our face, into our hands; and we struck him, and his sons, and all his people. And we held all his cities in that time. And we utterly destroyed every city; next also their women, and their children we did not leave behind for taking alive. Except the cattle we despoiled for ourselves. And the spoils from the cities we took, from Aroer, which is by the bank of the rushing stream Amon, and the city being in the ravine, and unto mount Gilead. There was not a city which evaded us; [delivered up all [the] LORD our God] into our hands. Except in the land [of the] sons of Ammon we did not draw near, all the [parts] falling in with [the] stream Jabbok, and the cities, the ones in the mountainous area, in so far as [gave charge to us [the] LORD our God].

Deuteronomy 18

1 And thou shalt not add to his salary nor take from his salary; he shall be paid his wages fairly.

2 When thou standest to pray, if it be in the temple of the LORD thy God, thou shalt not pray to the prince of the priests who presides over the service of my people Israel.

3 For they give it to themselves; and it is a sin before God; for they set themselves in the place of God for themselves.

4 When thou standest in the field with thy ass, thou shalt neither curse the blind nor smite the lame.

5 When one of thou servants or of thou servant’s sons is hungry and saleth unto thee one of thou servants out of the barn of corn, or one of thou servant’s sons out of thou flock of oxen, then thou shalt make him eat with thee.

6 And if one of thou servants be naked and sellith unto thee one of thou servant’s sons out of thou flock of sheep, thou shalt make him eat with thee.

7 And if one of thou servants or of thou servant’s sons be sick and be not able to work, then thou shalt not curse him for his sickness.

8 For he is thy brother and thou didst come forth out of the land of Egypt.

9 Be not hard upon thy servant or thy servant’s son, for thou wast hard upon thy fathers in the land of Egypt.

10 And thou shalt fear thy God and serve him, and swear by his name.

11 And it shall be, when thou art in harvest, and forgettest thou not the poor and the needy, then the LORD thy God will bless thee in all that thou doest.

12 And it shall be, if thou shalt go on the whole way of which I command thee this day, to observe and do all his statutes; then the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth.

13 And all the people of the earth shall see that thou art a people, and that the LORD thy God is one Lord.

14 And it shall be, if thou shalt walk after the LORD thy God, then shalt thou be exalted above all the nations that are upon the earth.

15 And when it shall come to pass, when thou shalt be returned to the land which thy fathers possessed, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell in it; then shalt thou begin to seek after all the nations which be round about thee, in their gods, after the fashion of the heathen round about thee, and shalt bring them into thy land, and delight thyself in them.

16 And thou shalt hate strange gods, neither shalt thou worship them.

17 And it shall be, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, and his decrees, o that thou mightest live long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to thee and to thy children after thee for ever.

18 And it shall be, when thou shalt be come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt set up great stones unto thee, and plaster them with plaster.

19 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law in the places where they shall lodge tonight.

20 And it shall be, when the Lord thy God shall have cut off all the nations before thee, thou shalt blot out the name of them out of that land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt dwell in their land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to thee and to thy children after thee for ever, and shalt worship the Lord thy God.

21 And it shall be, if thou doest diligently all that the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, to walk in his ways, and to do that which is right in his sight, and to pay tribute and sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose, thou shalt have no rain without rain, neither shall there be rain without rain.

22 Then shall the Lord thy God bless thee in all that thou doest and in all that thou settest thine hand to, in the land of thy inheritance which he giveth thee, and thou shalt prolong thy days in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to thee and to thy children after thee for ever.

23 And if thou shalt say in thine heart, The seventh year the sabbath of rest of the Lord shall not be to reapers, nor to harvesters.

24 Then I will command my blessing upon thee in the sixth year, that it may be a sabbatical year; and the fruit thereof shall be a sabbatical year for thee: an offering to the Lord, both thine and thine son’s.

25 And the fruit of the earth shall be thine food, as when thou sittest still and dreadest not.

26 And the Lord shall richly bless thee in the sixth year, and in all the years of the seven years, even unto the seventh year.

27 And it shall be, that if thou shalt obey my commandments, that I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his ordinances, and his decrees, o that thou mightest live long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever.

28 And it shall be, if thou shalt not hearken unto me, to walk in all the commandments of the Lord thy God, but shalt go and serve other gods, and worship them, then will the Lord bring upon thee and upon thy seed, after thee, all the curses of the Lord, which I have spoken unto thee.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the Lord shall have moved against thee, and shall have heard against thee in the severest of all thine enemies, that all the curses of the Lord, which I have spoken unto thee, shall come upon thee.

30 And the Lord shall separate thee out of all the nations that are upon the earth, and shall gather thee unto himself, and shalt be plucked out of all the nations, and brought unto the land which thy fathers possessed.

31 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, that the Lord thy God hath done unto thee, in the land which thou goest to possess, that thou shalt utter a strong word against me, saying, Why hath the Lord our God done such great evil unto us, to cast us out from his sight, to give us a land that floweth with milk and honey, and to give it them, and not us?

32 But remember the commandment of the Lord thy God, to love thy neighbour, as thyself; and thou shalt love him as thyself.

33 And thou shalt remember all the commandments of the Lord, and observe them, and do them; and the Lord shall cause thee to be multiplied, and thou shalt be more prosperous than thine enemies, and thou shalt gird thee with a strong cord, and shalt stand as a giant among thy brethren.

34 And it shall be, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt.

35 You shall therefore keep this commandment, and do it, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which the Lord your God giveth you.

Deuteronomy

In this chapter, God appears to Moses and instructs him to lead the Israelites into the promised land of Canaan. Moses is commanded to take the Israelites to the land of Gilead and beyond, including the lands of Naphtali, Ephraim, Manasseh, and Judah, as far as the sea and the wilderness. Moses is told to speak to the Israelites about their inheritance and the lands they are to inherit.

The chapter also describes the end of Moses' life. He is instructed to enter the land but not to enter the holy city of Jerusalem. Moses is allowed to view the land but is not permitted to enter it. Despite this, Moses is permitted to see the borders of the land from a distance. Moses is then commanded to entomb himself near the house of Peor in Moab.

The next chapter will likely describe the death and burial of Moses, the emergence of Joshua as the new leader of the Israelites, and the beginning of the journey into the promised land.

And they gathered fruit [of] the place of the Phoenicians in that year. And it came to pass as Joshua was in Jericho and they gathered fruit that year. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho.

And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho. And they gathered fruit of the place of the Phoenicians in Jericho.

And it came to pass as Joshua was in Jericho, that lifting up his eyes, he beheld a man standing before him, and his broadsword was unsheathed in his hand. And coming forward, Joshua said to him, Are you ours or [of] our opponents? And he said to him, I am [the] commander-in-chief of the force of [the] LORD, now I have come. And Joshua fell upon his face upon the ground, and he did obeisance, and he said to him, My master what do you assign to your servant? And [ says the commander-in-chief of [the] LORD] to Joshua, Untie your sandal from your feet! for the place upon which you stand is holy. And Josua did thus.

1 And Jericho was closed up, and fortified from before the sons of Israel. And no one went forth from out of it, and neither entered. And [the] LORD said to Joshua, Behold, I deliver up to you the place of the kingdom of [the] sons of Israel. And the one

And it came to pass as Joshua spoke to τον λαόν καὶ επτά ierei̇s ἔχονται επτά σαλπιγγας the people, that [the] seven priests having seven [ trumpets

And it came to pass on the [day seventh rose up the expedition] at dawn and went around the city according to this practice seven times, only on that day they circled the city seven times. And it came to pass in the [circuit seventh trumped the priests] with trumpets, and Joshua said to the sons of Israel, Cry out, [delivered up for] [the] LORD] the city to you! And [will be the city] an offering for consumption, it and all as much as is in it, to the LORD of the forces. Except Rahab the harlot -- protect her, and all as much as is of hers in the house! for she hid the messengers whom we sent. But you guard from the offering for consumption! lest at any time pondering, you should take of the offering for consumption, and make the camp of the sons of Israel an offering for consumption, and he should obliterate us. And all silver or gold, and all brass and iron, will be holy to the LORD;

τοὺς αδελφοὺς αὐτῆς καὶ πάντα ὡσα ἦν αὐτή καὶ her brothers, and all as much as was to her, and the ones spying which Joshua sent

And you shall gather all your enemies, before whom you should lift away the offering for consumption from you. And you shall gather all tribes according to your tribes. And it will be to the tribe which you should lift away that offering for consumption, from you.

And whenever you should lift away it to the tribe which that offering for consumption, from you, you shall gather all your tribes, and it will be to the tribe which you should lift away that offering for consumption, from you, and all as much as is his; for he violated the covenant of [the] LORD, and that he committed a violation of the law in Israel. And Joshua rose early in the morning, and he led forward the people which [the] LORD showed you shall lead forward according to peoples. And he led forward [ people the Zarhite] according to man, and Zabdi was made manifest. And he led forward his house by man, and was made manifest Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah. And Joshua said to Achan, O my son, today give indeed glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make to him the acknowledgment, and announce to me what you did! and you should not hide [it] from me. And Achan answered [to] Joshua, and said, Truly I sinned before [the] LORD God of Israel, so and I have done. I beheld in the spoils

And Joshua stretched the javelin and his hand against the city, and the ones in ambush rose up quickly from out of their place. And they went forth when he stretched out the hand. And they entered into the city, and κατελάβοντο αυτήν και σπεύσαντες ενέπρησαν την

On account of this I will not proceed to deliver you.

Proceed and yell to the gods whom you chose for yourselves, and let them deliver you in [the] time of your affliction!

And [said the sons of Israel] to [the] LORD, We sinned, do according to all whatever as much as should be pleasing before you, only rescue us in this day!

And they removed [gods the alien] from their midst, and they served to the LORD. And he was faint-hearted over the toil of Israel. And there ascended up the sons of Ammon, and they camped in Gilead. And [came forth the sons of Israel] and there were he shall be head to all the ones dwelling in Gilead?

And Jephthah the Gileadite was mighty in strength. And he [was] [the] son [woman of a harlot]. And she bore [to] Gilead the son of Jephthah. And [bore the wife] to Gilead himself sons.

And [matured the sons of the woman], and they cast out.
Jephthah, and said to him, You shall not inherit among the house of our father, for [a son woman etaiρας συ ει 3+ και απέδρα Ιεφθάε εκ προσώπου of a mistress you are]. And Jephthah ran away from [the] face των αδελφών αυτού και κατώκησεν εν γη Τωβ και of his brothers, and he dwelt in [the] land of Tob. And συνελέγοντο προς τον Ιεφθάε άνδρες λιτοί και [collected together with Jephthah men cheap], and συνεξεπορεύοντο μετ' αυτού 4+ και εγένετο μεθ' went forth together with him. And είπον προς Ιεφθάε δεύρο και έση ημίν εις they said to Jephthah, Come, and you will be to us as ηγούμενον και πολεμήσομεν εν τοις υιοίς Αμμών 7+ a leader, for we shall make war with the sons of Ammon. και είπεν Ιεφθάε τοις πρεσβύτεροι Γαλαάδ ουχ υμείς And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Did you not εμισήσατέ με και εξεβάλατέ με εκ του οίκου detest me, and cast me from out of the house του πατρός μου και εξαπεστείλατέ με αφ', υμών και of my father, and sent me from you? And τι ότι ήλθατε προς με νυν ηνίκα εθλίβητε 8+ και why [is it] that you came to me now when you are afflicted? And είπαν οι πρεσβύτεροι Γαλαάδ προς Ιεφθάε ουκ [said the elders of Gilead] to Jephthah, Not ούτως νυν συνήλθομεν προς σε και συμπορεύση so, now we gathered together to you, and you shall go with ημίν και πολεμήσομεν εν τοις υιοίς Αμμών και us, and we shall wage war against the sons of Ammon, and έση ημίν εις κεφαλήν πάσι τοις κατοικούσι you will be to us as head to all the ones dwelling Γαλαάδ 9+ και είπεν Ιεφθάε προς τους πρεσβυτέρους in Gilead. And they ascended and camped in Kirjath-jearim in Judah. On account of this [was called that place], Camp of Dan until this day.

Behold, [it is] behind Kirjath-jearim.

And they went from there unto mount Ephraim, and they went from there unto mount Ephraim, and came unto [the] house of Micah. And [responded the five men going to survey the land of Laish].

And they said to their brethren, Did you know that there is an ephod, and teraphim, and a carved [image], and a molten [image]?

And now know what you shall do!

And they turned aside there, and entered into the house of the young man -- the Levite, into the house of Micah, and they asked him for peace. And the six hundred men being girded with weapons for their warfare, were set up by the door of the gatehouse, [were] the ones from the sons of Dan. And the priest was set up by the door of the gatehouse, and the six hundred men were girded with weapons for warfare.

3 + και το παιδάριον Σαμουήλ ην λειτουργούν τω
And the boy Samuel was officiating to the for giving orders. And it came to pass in that day that Ηλί εκάθευδεν εν τω τόπω αυτού και Eli slept in his [own] place, and οι οφθαλμοί αυτοῦ ἁρέμνιον αμαυρωθηκαί καὶ οὐκ his eyes began to be darkened, and he was not εὔνατον βλέπειν 3+ καὶ ο λύχνος τοῦ θεοῦ πρὶν able to see. And the lamp of God [was] before cατασβεσθήναν καὶ Σαμουήλ εκάθευδεν εν τῷ ναῷ its being extinguished, and Samuel slept in the temple κυρίον οὐ καὶ η κιβωτὸς τοῦ θεοῦ 4+ καὶ of [the] LORD where the ark of God [was]. And ekάλεσε κύριος Σαμουήλ. Σαμουήλ καὶ εἶπεν ιδοὺ

[the] LORD called, Samuel. And he said, Behold, eγώ 5+ καὶ ἔδραμε πρὸς Ηλί καὶ εἶπεν ιδοὺ εγώ ὅτι [it is] I. And he ran to Eli, and said, Behold, [it is] I, for κέκληκάς καὶ εἶπεν ο κέκληκά σε ανάστρεφε you called me. And he said, I have not called you, return καὶ κάθευδε καὶ ανέστρεψε καὶ εκάθευδε 6+ καὶ and sleep! And he returned and slept. And προσέθετο κύριος ἐτι καλέσαι Σαμουήλ καὶ [ added [the] LORD] again to call Samuel. And eπορεύθη πρὸς Ηλί το deúteron καὶ εἶπεν ιδοὺ εγώ he went to Eli the second [time], and said, Behold, [it is] I, for ὅτι κέκληκάς καὶ εἶπεν ού κέκληκά σε τέκνον you called me. And he said, I have not called you child, return and sleep! And [it was] before Samuel knew tον θεόν καὶ πρὶν η αποκαλυφθῆναι ρήμα κυρίου God, and before the revealing [the] word of [the] LORD πρὸς αὐτόν 8+ καὶ προσέθετο κύριος καλέσαι to him. And [the] LORD added [again] to call Σαμουήλ εν τρίτῳ καὶ ανέστη καὶ επορεύθη πρὸς Samuel a third [time]. And he rose up and went to Ηλί καὶ εἶπεν ιδοὺ εγώ ὅτι κέκληκάς με καὶ Eli. And said, Behold, [it is] I, for you have called me. And εσοφίσατο Ηλί ὅτι κύριος κέκληκε το παιδάριον 9+ Eli discerned that [the] LORD has called the boy.

καὶ εἶπεν Ηλί τῷ Σαμουήλ ανάστρεψε καὶ κάθευδε
And Eli said to Samuel, Return and sleep child! And it will be if he should call you, that you shall say, Speak, kύριε ὅτι ἀκούει ὁ δούλος σου καὶ επορεύθη Σαμουήλ O LORD, for [ hears your servant!] And Samuel went, καὶ εκοιμήθη εν τῷ τόπῳ αὐτοῦ 10+ καὶ ἡλθε κύριος and went to bed in his place. And [the] LORD came, καὶ κατέστη καὶ εκάλεσεν αὐτόν ὡς ἀπαξ καὶ and stood, and called him as once [before], and ἀπαξ Σαμουὴλ Σαμουὴλ καὶ εἰπε Σαμουὴλ λάλει once [before that], Samuel, Samuel. And Samuel said, Speak, kύριε ὅτι ακούει ὁ δούλος σου 11 + καὶ εἰπε κύριος O LORD, for [ hears your servant!] And [the] LORD said προς Σαμουὴλ ἰδοὺ εγὼ ποιῶ τα ρήματά μου εν to Samuel, Behold, I perform my words in

I have announced to him that I punish, his house, unto κακολογούντες θεόν οἱ υἱοί αὐτοῦ καὶ οὐκ ενουθέτει were speaking evil of God his sons, and he did not admonish αὐτοὺς 14 + καὶ οὐξ οὕτως ὡμοσα το οἶκο Ηλί to his house. And [ not thus have I] sworn by an oath to the house of Eli,

Shall [ be atoned the iniquity of the house of Eli] by incense or by sacrifices into the eon, [no]. And Samuel went to bed ἕως πρωϊ καὶ ὄρθρισε τοπρωϊ καὶ ἤνοιξε τας until morning. And he rose up early in the morning, and he opened the θύρας οἴκου κυρίου καὶ Σαμουὴλ εφοβήθη doors of the [the] house of the LORD. And Samuel feared απαγγείλαι τὴν όρασιν τῷ Ηλί 16 + καὶ εἰπεν Ηλί προς to report the vision to Eli. And Eli said to Σαμουὴλ Σαμουὴλ τέκνον καὶ εἰπεν ηδον εγὼ 17 + καὶ Samuel, Samuel child. And he said, Behold, [it is] I. And eἰπε τι το ρήμα το λαληθέν προς σε μη δη he said, What [was] the word being spoken to you? Do not indeed

Samuel reported all the words, and did not hide them from him. And Eli said, [The] LORD himself to whom Samuel reported, and [the] LORD was with him. And he said to all the people, and they did not fall from all his words [one] upon the ground. And [knew all Israel] from Dan and unto Beer-sheba that Samuel [was] trustworthy for prophet to the LORD. And [the] LORD added [again] to manifest to the word of Samuel to all Israel. And gathered together the Philistines for war against Israel; and Israel went forth to meet them for war. And they camped at Ebenezer. And the Philistines camped in Aphek. And [deployed the Philistines] for war against Israel. And [leaned [one way] the war], and [failed [the] men of Israel] before the Philistines. And there was struck in the battle array in [the] field four thousand men. And [came the people] into the camp. And [said the

And one day Eli was sitting on the gate watching the way, for his heart receded on account of the ark of God. And the man entered into the city to report. And [yelled out] the sound of the yelling, and said, What [is] this? Eli heard the sound of the yelling, and said, What [is] this? And the man hastening,

And Eli said to the men, to the ones standing around him, What [is] the report of this sound? And the man hastening, came forward to Eli, and entered a son to him. What [is] the voice of this sound? And Eli said, What [is] the servant-lad, said, I am the one having come from the camp, and I have fled from the battle array standing around him, What [is] the report of this sound? And Eli said, What [is] the [taking place thing] child? Every man of Israel from the face of [the] Philistines, and calamity a great has happened among the people, and both of your sons have died, and the ark of God was taken. And [has been resettled] she said, [ was taken the ark of God].

And the Philistines took the ark of God, and carried it from out of Ebenezer unto Ashdod.

And [ rose early the Ashdodites], and they entered into [the] house of Dagon the next day. And they saw, and behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face upon the ground before the ark of God. And they raised Dagon, and they placed him upon his place. And it came to pass as they rose early in the morning, and behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face before of the ark.

And said the sons of Israel to the sons of Israel [the] house [of Israel] after [the] LORD, And Samuel said, the house of Israel said, If with entire heart you turn to the LORD, remove the gods of the aliens from your midst, and prepare your hearts to the LORD, and serve him alone! and he will rescue you from out of the hand of the Philistines. And removed the sons of Israel, the Baalim, and the sacred groves of Ashtaroth, and served to the LORD alone. And Samuel said, Gather all Israel unto Mizpeh!
Samuel, do not remain silent from us! to not yell to [the] LORD your God, that he shall deliver us from out of the hand of the Philistines. And Samuel took a whole burnt-offering to the LORD with all the people. And Samuel yelled to [the] LORD over Israel, and [ heeded him]

And [ was [the] hand of the LORD] against the Philistines all
And [ were given back the cities] which [ took the Philistines] from the sons of Israel - from Ekron unto Gath. And there was the hand of the Philistines.

And there was peace between Israel and between the Amorrites. And Samuel adjudicated for Israel all the days of his life.

And he went according to year [by] year and circled [about] Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh. And he adjudicated for Israel in all these places.

And his returning was unto Ramah; for [ was there his house]; and he adjudicated for Israel there, and he built there an altar to the LORD.

And it came to pass as Samuel grew old, that he placed in all these places. And these [are] the names of his sons. The first-born was Joel, and [the] name of the second Abiah, magistrates in Beer-sheba.

And they said to him, Behold, you grow old, and now your sons do not go in your way. And now your sons do not go in your way. And now you said, Give to us a king to adjudicate for us! And Samuel prayed to the LORD. And [the] LORD said to Samuel, Hearken to the voice of the people! as whatever they should speak to you, for it is not you they treat with contempt, but only me they treat with contempt, to not reign over them. According to all the works which I led them from Egypt, and until this day, even as they abandoned me, and served other gods, so they do also to you. And now hearken [to] their voice! Only that in testifying you should testify to them, and you shall report to them the ordinance of the king, which shall reign over them. And Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to the people, of the ones asking of him for a king. And he said, This will be the ordinance of the king, of the one reigning over you. Your sons shall take put them in his chariots and among his horsemen, and they shall run in front of his chariots.

And he will appoint them for himself as commanders of thousands, and commands of hundreds, to plow his plowing, and to harvest his harvest, and to gather the vintage of his gathering the crops, and to make items for his warfare, and for his chariots.

And you will be to him for servants. And you shall yell in that day before [the] face of your king.

And I will report to you. And today you should not put your heart to them, for they are found. And what are the beautiful [things] of Israel? Is it not to you, and to all the house of your father? And Saul answered and said, [not a man a son of a Benjamite Am I], of the lesser chiefdom of the tribes of Israel? And my family least of all the families of Benjamin? And why have you spoken to me concerning this thing? And Samuel took Saul and his servant-lad, and he brought them into the lodging, and set for them a place among the foremost of the ones being called -- about thirty men. And Samuel said to the cook, Give me the portion which I gave to you, which I told you to put it by you. And [took the cook] the hind quarter, and the [part] upon it, and placed it before Saul. And Samuel said to Saul, Behold, the leftover; place it before you, and eat! For as a testimony it is placed for you over the people -- pull it off! And Saul ate with Samuel in that day.

1 + και έπε Σαμουὴλ προς πάντα άνδρα Ισραήλ ιδού And Samuel said to every man of Israel, Behold, ήκουσα της φωνής υμῶν εις πάντα άσα εἰπατέ I hearkened to your voice in all as many [things] as you said μοι καὶ εβασίλευσα εφ’ υμάς βασιλέα 2 + και νυν to me, and I gave reign over you a king. And now, ήΔΟ ο βασιλεύς διαπορεύεται ενώπιον υμῶν καγώ behold, the king travels before you. And I γεγήρακα καὶ καθήσομαι καὶ ιδού οι υιοί μου en grow old and shall sit. And behold, my sons [are] among υμίν καγώ ιδού διελήλυθα ενώπιον υμῶν εκ you. And I, behold, I have gone before you from νεότητός μου καὶ έως της ημέρας ταύτης 3 + ιδού my youth, and until this day. Behold,
I [am here]. You should respond against me before [the] LORD, and whose calf have I taken? or whose hand have I taken? or an appeasement, or a sandal? Should you respond to me, then I will give [it] back to you. And they said to Samuel, You did not wrong us, and you did not tyrannize over us, and you have not taken from [hand anyone's] -- not one [thing]. And [He is] witness. And Samuel said to the people, [The] LORD [is] witness among you, that you have not found in my hand anything. And they said, [He is] witness. And Samuel said to the people, saying, [The] LORD is witness, the one preparing Moses and Aaron, and the one leading our fathers out of Egypt. And now stand, and I will adjudicate for you before [the] LORD, and I will report to you all the righteousness of [the] LORD, which he did to you, and [to] your fathers, as entered Jacob and his sons into Egypt, and humbled them Egypt. And [yelled to] [the] LORD, and [the] LORD sent Moses and Aaron. And he led our fathers out of Egypt, and settled to [the] LORD, and [the] LORD sent
And they forgot [the] LORD their God, and he gave them into [the] hands of Sisera commander-in-chief of Jabish, king of Hazor, and into the hands of [the] Philistines, and into the hands of the king of Moab; and they waged war with them. And they yelled to [the] LORD, and said, We sinned, for we abandoned [the] LORD, and we served to the Baalim, and to the sacred groves. And now rescue us from [the] hand of our enemies! and we will serve you. And [the] LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and rescued you round about from [the] hand of your enemies, and you dwell secure. And you beheld that Nahash king of [the] sons of Ammon came upon you, and you said, No, but only that a king shall reign over us. And [the] LORD our God [is] your king. And now behold, the king whom you chose and whom you acquire. And behold, [the] LORD puts over you a king! If you should fear the LORD, and should serve to him, and should hearken to his voice, and should not contend with the mouth of [the] LORD, then you should be (even you yourselves, and the king reigning over you).

20 + και είπε Σαμουήλ προς τον λαόν μη φοβείσθε
And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear!

you should not turn aside after the [things] being nothing, which achieve nothing, and which shall not rescue, for they are nothing. For [shall not thrust away [the] LORD]

But to me, may it not be to sin [against] the LORD, to stop praying for you to the LORD.

But I will manifest to you the [way good and

Only fear the LORD, and

And all Israel heard, saying, Saul has smitten the Philistines; and Israel was put to shame by the Philistines and anébē ο λαός οπίσω Σαούλ εν Philistines. And [ascended up the people] after Saul in Gilgal. And the Philistines gather together for war against Israel. And they ascend upon Israel eis πόλεμον τριάκοντα χιλιάδες αρμάτων καί εξ for war -- thirty thousand chariots, and six χιλιάδες ιππέων καί λαός ως η ἄμμος η παρά το thousand horsemen, and people as the sand by the χείλος της θαλάσσης τω πλήθει καί αναβαίνουσι και edge of the sea in the multitude. And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people being found with him, stayed in Gibeath of Benjamin. And the Philistines camped in Michmash. And [men] came forth to destroy out of [the] field of [the] Philistines in three companies. The [company one] looking upon [the] way of Ophrah, towards the land of Shual. And [company one] looking upon [the] way of Beth-horon. 14 + And came to pass a day, that [ said Jonathan [the] son of Saul] to the servant-lad carrying his weapons, Come, for we should pass over unto [the] support [camp] of the Philistines, the one on that other side; but [ to his father he did not report].

2 + And Saul settled upon the hill under the pomegranate, the one in Migron. And the people, the one with him, was about six hundred men. And Ahijah son of Ahitub, brother of Ichabod, son of Phinehas, son of Eli [the] priest of the LORD in Shiloh [was] carrying [the] ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan was gone. And in the midst of the ford of which Jonathan sought to pass over into the support [camp] of the Philistines [was] an extremity rock from here and an extremity rock from [there]; [the] name

And Jonathan ascended upon his hands and upon his feet, and the one carrying his weapons after him. And they looked upon [the person of Jonathan, and he struck among them, and the one carrying his weapons gave over after him. And came to pass the [ beating first] which Jonathan struck and the one carrying his weapons, [was] about twenty men by arrows, and by rock slinging and by pebbles of the plain. And came to pass a change of state in the camp, and in [the] field. And all the people, the one in the support [camp], and the ones being utterly destroyed, [ were startled even they]. And [ was distraught the land], and there took place a change of state because of [the] LORD. And [ beheld the watchmen of Saul] in Gibeah of Benjamin. And behold, the camp was disturbed on this side and that side. And

And Saul struck Amalek from Havilah unto Shur at the face of Egypt. And he seized Agag, king of Amalek alive. And all his people he utterly destroyed by the mouth of [the] broadsword. And every work being a disgrace, and being treated with contempt they utterly destroyed. And came to pass [the] word of [the] LORD to Samuel, saying, I have changed my mind for Saul to reign as king, for he turned away from me; and my words he did not give heed to. And Samuel was depressed, and yelled to [the] LORD [the] entire night. And Samuel rose early and went to meet Israel in the morning. And it was reported to Samuel, saying, Saul comes to Carmel. And behold, he has raised up to himself a hand, and turned his chariot, and went down into Gilgal. And Samuel came to Saul. And [said to him]...

And Samuel took the horn of oil, and he anointed him in [the] midst of his brothers. And [ sprang up spirit [of the] LORD] upon David from that day and forward. And [ said the servants of Saul] to him, Behold, [ spirit a ferocious] your servants before you! And let them seek. And Saul said to his servants, Look indeed for me for a man rightly [skilled for] strumming, and bring him to me! And answered one of his servant-lads, and said, Behold, I have seen [the] son of Jesse [the] Beth-lehemite, and he knows to strum,

And Saul sent messengers to Jesse, λέγων προς me Δαυίδ τον υιόν σου τον saying, Send out to me David your son, the one εν τῷ ποιμνίῳ σου 20+ και ἔλαβεν Ιεσσαί όνον και among your flock. And Jesse took an ass, and επέθηκεν αὐτῷ χόμορ ἄρτων καὶ ασκόν οἶνον και put upon it a homer of bread [loaves], and a leather bag of wine, and έριφον [ kid of [the] goats one], and sent [them] by [the] hand of David του υιου αυτού προς Σαούλ 21+ και εἰσήλθε Δαυίδ his son to Saul. And he became to him [the] one lifting τα σκεύη αυτοῦ 22+ και απέστειλε Σαούλ προς Ιεσσαί his weapons. And Saul was refreshed, and it was good αὐτῷ καὶ αφίστατο απ’ αὐτοῦ το πνεύμα το πονηρόν to him, and [ abstained from him the spirit ferocious].
And Saul and the men of Israel gathered together, and they camped in the valley of the terebinth tree, these and those. And they deployed for war right opposite the Philistines. And [the] Philistines stood upon the mountain here [on this side], and the canyon [was] between them. And there came forth [ man a mighty] from out of the battle array of the Philistines, Goliath the name to him, from Gath.

His height [was] four cubits and a span. And his leg coverings [were] of brass upon his legs, and a shield of brass in between his shoulders. And the shaft of his spear was as [the] weaver's beam of one weaving; and his lance six hundred shekels of iron. And the one lifting his weapons went before him. And he stood and yelled out to the battle array of Israel, and said to them, Why are you come forth to deploy for battle?
In this, my victory shall be yours, for yourselves choose a man and let him come down to me!
If he should be able to battle against me, and strike me, then we will be to you for servants. But if I shall overpower him, and shall strike him, you will be to us for servants, and you shall serve us.
Behold, I berate the battle array of Israel today in this day. Give to me a man, and we will fight one on one both!
Saul heard, and all Israel, the sayings of the Philistine these, and they were startled, and feared exceedingly. And David was a son of an Ephrathite; this one was from Beth-lehem Judah, and the name to him was Jesse, and to him were eight sons. And the man old in days of Saul arriving in [the] year.

that because of seeing the war you came down. And

What did I do now? [not a word Is it]? And he turned from him unto [rank another], and he said thus. And they answered to him according to the word formerly. And they heard the words of David which he spoke, and they were announced before Saul. And David said to Saul, Let not [be downcast the heart and do battle with this Philistine.

Saul said to David, In no way shall you be able to go against this Philistine to battle against him, for you are a boy, and he is a man of war from his youth. And David said to Saul,

In this, you shall triumph.

And whenever the lion and the bear came in, Your servant tended the flock.

And whenever came a bear or a lion, Your servant pulled it out of his mouth; and if he rose up against me, I held his throat and struck him, and put him to death.

Saul clothed David with his uniform and helmet. He put a brass chest on his head and a chest [plate] on his body.

And David said, The Lord who rescued me from out of the hand of the lion, and from out of the hand of the bear, he will rescue me from out of the hand of this uncircumcised Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go and the Lord will be with you!

And Saul clothed David with his uniform and helmet. David tied on his sword upon his head, and a chest [plate] on his body.

And Saul said to David, If in no way I shall be able to go with you, I shall be able to go in these, to proceed with you, for he was inexperienced. And David said to Saul, I shall be able to go in these.

And [ rose up the king], and tore his clothes,

And Absalom fled and went forth unto Geshur, and he was there [ years three]. And [ abated the spirit of king David] to go forth unto Absalom; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, that he died.
